

Dear Colleague,
let me invite you for a workshop

Working with Body Process from the Gestalt Therapy Perspective

with

Kevin McCann, M.I.A.C.P.

Number of participants: 12-18 (max. 18)

Dates: 22 & 23 November 2019, Friday – Saturday, 09:30am - 05:30pm

Place: Bratislava – Stupava, Intersport Hotel Stupava (about 25 minutes by car from Bratislava center)

Accommodation should be arranged individually, but we may advise you of a reasonable overnight stay nearby.

Program and structure of the workshop:

This two day workshop will offer participants the opportunity to experience and expand new ways of paying attention to how the body holds memory and character and how the body can reveal to us its historical data. By paying more attention to body posture, breath, voice, and movement we can support a more integrative embodied approach to our therapeutic work. The workshop will be a blend of theory, live demonstration and the opportunity to discuss and integrate the clinical work with the presented theory. The theory presented will be a blend of Gestalt and other body work orientations. Time permitting there will be the opportunity to practice working in the group and experience live supervision.

The workshop may be simultaneously translated into Slovak if requested by Slovak speaking participants.

Participant's fee: 300€ for the workshop (plus you will be charged for any meals and beverages provided at the hotel during the workshop)
